

Exploratory Conversation on Ethics and Standards for Educational Interpreters and Translators

Friday, September 27, 2019 - Irvine, California

4:30pm - 6:00pm PDT - Onsite and Virtual

AGENDA

Moderators: Katharine Allen, Holly Silvestri, Giovanna Carriero-Contreras

Tech Support, Barry s. Olsen, Luis Hernandez

Volunteers: Lizbeth Vazquez, Mary Madrigal, Eva Vargas

4:30-4:45pm	Introductions and Meeting Overview Welcome Who are the moderators with brief summary of how we got to today. Purpose of meeting
4:45-5:00pm	NCIHC Ethics and Standards: History and Potential Strategies for Educational Interpreting and Translation by Cindy Roat
5:00-5:20	Lightning Updates on Educational Interpreting in the US <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Speaker 1 – Angel Ho - Oakland School District, CA2. Speaker 2 – Betty Tapias-Heinrich – University of Minnesota3. Speaker 3 – Victoria Baldwin or Lisa Conway – Jefferson County Schools, CO4. Speaker 4 – Jennifer Love – Prince George’s County Schools, MD
5:20-5:45pm	Guided Brainstorming Session: Priorities Through the combined use of the real-time polling program Mentimeter, 3x5 cards at the onsite meeting and the Zoom chat window for virtual attendees, participants will have the opportunity to provide their feedback on the following questions: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Who is in attendance?2. Where are you attending from?3. What are the biggest challenges facing educational interpreters and translators?4. Do you support ITE’s proposal to form a workgroup to define the role of and to create a national code of ethics and standards of practice for education interpreters and translators?5. What structure should a national workgroup take?6. What do you think the workgroup’s first steps should be?7. How can you contribute to this effort?8. What should we do that we haven’t done yet?
5:45-6:00pm	Next Steps (we will use Mentimeter here as well) Formation of a steering committee (what structure) Next meeting